SMALL OFFICE—HOME OFFICE

Projecting a large company image in the small business market is made possible with the Encore by Inter-Tel.

The Encore is a business communications system that is feature rich and cost effective for small office or home office businesses. Features such as caller ID, conferencing, speed dialing and voice mail are certain to set your business apart from your competition.

RETAIL STORES—STRIP MALL STORES

Encore by Inter-Tel is perfectly suited for retail communications and can be customized to meet your specific business requirements. Encore also has the ability to connect analog devices such as credit card terminals, cordless telephones and fax machines, making it a flexible and cost-effective solution for all your retail communications requirements.

RESTAURANTS—FAST FOOD CHAINS

Encore by Inter-Tel is a powerful, yet easy-to-use key telephone system that is ideal for the restaurant environment. With its Auto Attendant and Voice Messaging capability, you can project the image of a sophisticated business to your clients. You can communicate business hours and directions via the Auto Attendant and leverage the Voice Messaging system to ensure you don't lose those valuable reservation requests from your clientele or important messages from your vendors.

HEALTH CARE FACILITIES

Health care is the largest industry in the United States. By leveraging the Encore by Inter-Tel, today's health care professionals can improve the overall efficiency of their offices and focus on delivering exceptional customer care to their patients. Utilizing the advanced features of the Encore phone, the receptionist's phone can be programmed as an attendant station, so enhanced customer service can be provided to patients who are trying to reach a specific staff member within the health care facility.
